I hereby confirm that the Laboratory for Machine Tools and Production Engineering ("WZL") of RWTH Aachen University is cooperating with us, the TAKATA AG ("TAKATA"), in our activities to identify tool suppliers in Eastern Europe.

In our joint project "Systematic Tool Supply Concept for Hungarian Production Plant" we seek to identify and analyze potential suppliers for the manufacturing of injection molding tools.

The WZL gathers information and contacts potential suppliers on behalf of the TAKATA tooling department. All provided information is coordinated with TAKATA and will be treated strictly confidential, only accessible for the project team members of TAKATA and WZL.

We kindly ask you to provide the information described in the questionnaire attached. After analyzing your data we will contact you personally and arrange for a visit.

Thank you very much for your cooperation!
